Celebrate Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sanderson celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding, Friday, Aug. 24, at their beautiful country home near Pricetown. Fifty years, with its green and gold, its music and psalms of peace have rolled away like a grand panorama into the dim, misty past, and we, a favored two, have been permitted to gaze upon the threshold of a new century in American history.

On Aug. 25, 1861, they were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cochran. For fifty years they have traveled life's journey together hand in hand, raising a family of seven children, all of whom are still living, except two, to be a comfort to their parents in their declining years. Only twice has this family been invaded by death during 50 years. In 1887, Oren Curtis, the third son, died and on Sept. 11, 1901 death again entered the home taking their oldest daughter, Ella, from them. Otherwise the family circle is unbroken. The couple were permitted to celebrate their anniversary with five children, four grandchildren, relatives, friends and neighbors. In all 110 were present at the golden wedding anniversary.

Those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens, of Wilmington, Miss Meda Conner, of Burtonville, Mrs. Earl Fields and two daughters and Mrs. Lee Fields, of Lynchburg, Mrs. Fred Corder, of Blanchester, Rev. W. V. Miller, of Westboro, Jesse Barker, of Middletown, Mrs. Frank Chaney, of Oklahoma and Mrs. D. C. Bennington and two daughters, Fay and Laveda, of Oklahoma City. It was a great pleasure to have them present on this occasion.

When the noon hour arrived it was announced that dinner was ready. Then the bride and groom with their brothers and sisters and oldest friends and the two ministers present, Rev. W. V. Miller and Frank Foust and wife, were all seated at the bride's table, which was beautifully decorated with flowers. The center piece of the table was a large cake, representing the golden anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson. Across the top in gold figures were the dates 1861-1911; beneath it "50 years." The icing surrounding the inscriptions was molded into wreaths and ornamented with gold leaves. At the request of Mr. Sanderson, a blessing was invoked before beginning the repast by Rev. W. V. Miller.

After the dinner was over a short program, arranged for the occasion, was listened to with much interest by all. In recalling the days of the past and present many happy memories were given new life. Music was furnished for the occasion by the Pricetown Orchestra. After the short services were over Mr. Sanderson announced that he would treat all guests to ice cream and cake, which was highly appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson received many beautiful and valuable presents, for which the donors will except their sincere and heartfelt thanks.

As the shades of the evening approached all departed for their homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson many more happy returns of the day and feeling that it was a happy day for all and one well spent.
